

ABOUT TEAD

In a heartwarming celebration of four and a half decades of transformative service, TEAD Therapeutic Riding Centre commemorates 45 years as a beacon of hope, healing, and empowerment for individuals in Hamilton and its surrounding areas. Established on April 28th, 1978, TEAD has been a steady source of support, growth, and independence for countless individuals with various challenges, fostering a strong community that thrives on the connection between humans and horses.

TEAD's story stands as a testament to the power of compassion, dedication, and the profound bond between humans and horses. From its humble beginnings with borrowed horses to its current status as a leading therapeutic riding centre, TEAD has created a legacy of empowerment and healing that will continue to touch lives for generations to come.
